Books & Beyond Fall 2013

THE HIP REPLACEMENTS BAND

SUNDAY, SEPT. 22
@ 1:00 P.M.

The Hip Replacements are a sixties cover band, consisting of two female singers and one male singer who plays acoustic guitar. They generate a sound unique among rock bands. They sing great songs that are remembered for their vocal harmonies and their instrumental sounds. They perform songs like "Nowhere Man", "Heartache Tonight" and "Suite: Judy Blue Eyes". Their fans rave about the beauty of their vocals, the fullness of their sound, and the great selection of songs they bring to each engagement.

THE HIDDEN HISTORY OF INSANE ASYLUMS IN 19TH CENTURY NEW YORK

SAT. OCT 12 @ 2:00 P.M.

Discover the details of 19th Century insane asylums with Michael Keene, author of Mad House. While walking in the footsteps of history's mentally ill, you will be amazed at their treatment, their stories and the ever evolving world of mental health in the United States. This program specifically looks into the insane asylum wards of 19th century New York and the rich assortment of doctors and patients that inhabited them. Be prepared to be both educated and entertained as you follow along with the sad but engaging tales.

HELPING DREW A MUSICAL WED. NOV. 13 @ 6:00 P.M. GRADES-K-6

Up In Arms presents Helping Drew, an interactive musical puppet show with an anti-bullying message, perfect for the whole family. Principal Tector needs your help as a member of the Bully Patrol. She fears that one of her students, Drew is being bullied by another student in school. Lee thinks bullying Drew is fun. Lee's best friend Victoria doesn't think so, but what can she do to help Drew? Students and adults are instantly endeared to the puppet characters and fun music which moves the story along. This program helps students recognize bullying and look for solutions within themselves and with the help of others. Helping Drew is both entertaining and educational on this important subject of bullying.

MONSTERS, ALIENS, AND STINKY ICE CREAM

OUR SUMMER AMNESTY RESULTS ARE IN!

Our summer amnesty program was very successful! We had 49 people who participated in the program and waived a total of $626.00 worth of fines and missing items. We also replaced 13 library cards with no charge. A great big thank you to everyone who participated and for all the great donations we will be sending to our adopted platoon overseas.

INCLEMENT WEATHER CLOSINGS

When road travel is hazardous, the library may have a delayed opening, close early or not open at all that day. In case of snow or icy roads, please call the library before venturing out, check our Facebook page or log onto www.cancellations.com. If we are closed and you have items due that day, you will not be charged a late fee if the item is returned the next day we open.

We would like to say a BIG thank you to all the local businesses who donated prizes for our adult Summer reading program:
